WV New Grievance Procedure

WV Code 6C-2-1 et seq.

Presented by:

West Virginia Education Association

Definitions

- Chief Administrator- county superintendent, college president, or executive director of a RESA.
- Day- working days only. Not Saturday, Sunday, official holiday, and legal closure by the chief administrator.
- Substitute Employees- are considered employees only as to matters of violation, misapplication or misinterpretation of a statute, policy, rule or written agreement.
- Grievance- claim by employee alleging: harassment; a violation, misapplication or misinterpretation of statute, policy, rule, written agreement, compensation, hours, terms and conditions of employment, employment status, or discrimination (unless activity was agreed to by the employee or related to the actual job responsibilities); policy or practice constituting substantial detriment to or interference with employee's effective job performance or employee's health or safety.

Level I- The Chief Administrator

Grievance filed with the Chief Administrator within 15 Days of the event.

- ❑ Written notice must include the nature of the grievance, the relief requested and a request for a conference or hearing.
- ❑ Grievance must also be filed with the grievance board.

Level I- Continued

- The Chief Administrator must hold a conference or hearing within 10 days of receiving the grievance.
- The Chief Administrator must issue a written decision within 15 days of the conference or hearing.
- The employee may proceed directly to Level 3 upon agreement of the employee and the chief administrator.
- If an employee is discharged, suspended without pay, or demoted/reclassified grievance goes directly to Level 3.

Level 2- Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR)

- Within 10 days of receiving an adverse decision at Level 1 grievant must file a request for mediation, private mediation or mediation-arbitration (med-arb).
- The Grievance Board shall schedule one of the ADR's within 20 days of the request.
- Mediators will issue a resolution/decision within 15 days of the mediation/arbitration.

Level 2- Mediation

- Mediation conducted by an ALJ (Administrative Law Judge) at no cost to the parties.
- Parties may be represented and shall have the authority to settle the dispute.
- Agreements reached will be documented in writing within 15 days.
- Agreements are binding and enforceable in WV by writ of mandamus.

Level 2- Private Mediation

- Parties agree in writing to retain a private mediator and share the cost.
- Mediator shall schedule the mediation within 20 days and follow standard mediation procedures.
- Parties may be represented and shall have someone present with the authority to settle the dispute.
- Agreements reached will be reduced to writing within 15 days of the mediation.
- Agreements reached are binding and enforceable in WV by writ of mandamus.

Level 2- Mediation-Arbitration (med-arb)

- Parties must agree in writing before the Med-Arb begins.
- ALJ conducts the Med-Arb at no cost to either party.
- If mediation fails to result in an agreement, the mediator may become an arbitrator and issue a decision in the matter.
- Agreements/Decisions are to be documented in writing within 15 days.
- Agreements/Decisions are binding and enforceable in WV by writ of mandamus.

Level 2- Neutral Evaluation

- Within 15 days of an unsuccessful mediation or med-arb the ALJ may issue a written summary to parties as a neutral evaluator stating the issues presented.
- Preparation for Level 3 Hearing.

Level 3- Adjudication

- Within 10 days of receiving a report of an unsuccessful ADR, the grievant may file a written appeal with the employer and the board requesting a hearing.
- The ALJ shall schedule the hearing within a reasonable timeline in consultation with both parties.
- The ALJ may make a determination of bad faith and in extreme instances allocate costs of the hearing to the party found to be acting in bad faith.
- Within 30 days following a Level 3 hearing the ALJ shall issue a decision in writing to all parties.
- The decision of the ALJ is final upon the parties and enforceable in the circuit court of Kanawha County.

Appeal to Circuit Court of Kanawha County

- A party may appeal the decision within 30 days to the Kanawha County Circuit Court on the following grounds:
 - ❑ Contrary to: law, adopted rule, written policy of employer.
 - ❑ Exceeds ALJ statutory authority.
 - ❑ Result of fraud or deceit.
 - ❑ Clearly wrong in view of evidence on whole record.
 - ❑ Arbitrary, capricious, abuse of discretion, clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.
